II. JURISDICTION & VENUE

4. Diversity Jurisdiction -- This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because this is a civil action between citizens of different states and the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of $75,000. Specifically, Plaintiff, Genevie Ilene Maley is a

III. BACKGROUND FACTS

6. Brock W. Maley obtained insurance with Defendant under Minnesota Life Insurance Company Policy No. 34234 on behalf of Dell USA. After the death of Brock Maley, a dispute arose as to who the proper beneficiary of his life insurance policy was – his ex-wife, Genevie Ilene Maley, or his sister, Holly Drowley. Brock Maley died in Travis County, Texas.

7. A Release and Settlement Agreement (the “Agreement”) was reached between Plaintiffs and Defendant regarding the payout of the policy limits by Defendant, the terms of which are confidential and the Agreement is filed herewith under seal as Exhibit A. Defendant drafted this Agreement, and sent it to the Plaintiffs on June 30, 2014, asking that Plaintiffs sign it. In short, the Agreement stated that in exchange for a release of all claims held by Plaintiffs, Defendant agreed to pay Plaintiffs the sum of $170,000.00. Plaintiffs executed the Agreement on that same day and delivered it to Defendant.

8. Subsequent to the signing and delivery of the executed Agreement, however, Defendant notified Plaintiffs that it would not be making the payout under the Agreement. As of the time of this filing, Defendant has failed to make the payment as promised under the terms of the Agreement.

IV. COUNT ONE – BREACH OF CONTRACT

9. Plaintiffs incorporate and re-allege paragraphs 1-8 above.

10. Plaintiffs and Defendant entered into a valid, enforceable contract. Plaintiff performed their respective obligations under the Agreement. Defendant's actions amount to a breach of the contract between Plaintiffs and Defendant.
